THE GRIM GLEANER.

Death of Miss Gussie Hill, Mrs. Holdeman and Mrs. Shlaudeman Last Night.

MISS AGUSTA E. HILL.
After a long and painful illness, Miss Gussie Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh W. Hill, died this morning at 6:30 o'clock, at the family residence west of Pine street. The deceased was first taken seriously ill on the third day of last January with hemorrhage of the lungs, and though everything that could do or suggest or medical skill could do away peacefully and resignedly, passing away peacefully and resignedly, the death of Miss Hill, who was a member of the Presbyterian church, and a graduate of the Decatur High School, class of 1878, was a young lady well known in social and other circles in this community, and the announcement of her premature death will be read with feelings of pain and regret by all our people, whose sincere sympathy will go out to the bereaved parents and those nearest and dearest to the departed. Miss Hill was born in Cape Girardeau county, Mo., on October 7, 1857. She was the youngest of a family of five children, two of whom survive--Mr. John N. Hill of this county, and Mrs. Thomas A. Bone, of Pomona, Kansas.

The funeral will take place from the family residence on Monday, April 2d, at 3 p. m., Rev. W. H. Prestley officiating. Obituary Monday.

MRS. HENRY SHLAUDEMAN.
The death of Mrs. Caroline Shlaudeman, wife of Alderman Shlaudeman, occurred at the family residence in the fourth ward (Saturday) morning at 3 o'clock, after a brief illness. The deceased had been in failing health for several years, but was up town shopping nine days ago. She contracted a severe cold and died of pneumonia. Mrs. Shlaudeman was a native of Germany, and came to Indiana when a girl. She became the wife of Henry Shlaudeman, and has resided in Decatur since 1867. She died in the 49th year of her age. The surviving children are Frank and Henry Shlaudeman, and Lillie and Maudie Shlaudeman.

The funeral will occur on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence.

MRS. MAGGIE HOLDERMAN.
The death of Mrs. Maggie Holderman, aged 27 years, 11 months and 26 days, took place last night at 12 o'clock, at the family residence, No. 87 North Main st., after a painful illness extending through three months. She was afflicted with disease of the kidneys, and died in great pain. The deceased was the wife of Mr. Jacob Holderman, who has been in the employ of D. S. Shellbarger & Co., as a miller, for three and a half years. The husband is left with an interesting daughter, aged 22 months. Mrs. Holderman was a devoted wife and mother, and a consistent member of the Presbyterian church. She came here from Indianapolis, and made many friends in this community, who learned to love and admire her for her many excellent qualities.

The funeral will occur on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, from the family residence, Rev. W. H. Prestley officiating.

Justice Albert.
We are pleased to learn that Justice Albert is rapidly recovering from the effects of his recent mishap, and though unable to move about without the aid of crutches, he is in good spirits and quite lively for a man of his age. Mr. Albert sends us word that temporarily he has removed his office to his residence on South Main street, where he will be found ready at any time to attend to all sorts of justice of the peace business. He would be pleased to have his friends call and see him. The litch-string always hangs on the outside.

Will Joe Accept?
It is indicated in the Independent of this week that a Macon man can out-talk Uncle Josiah Epsy, of Decatur. The following from the Independent may be considered a challenge:

The Decatur Republican says: "We've found a man who can beat Joe Epsy on the dance, but nobody who can hold a stick to him in the way of argument. Then bring him down to Macon and put him against a man we could name. He could talk Josiah to death in less than half a day. Put up or shut up."

Joe is not very busy just now, as the garden making season is not at hand, and we hope and believe he will make it convenient to visit Macon and worry his glib-tongued rival at that place.

The Rev. Harrison revival meeting last night was one of the best of the series. Standing room was again at a premium. There were 42 seekers and about 10 conversions. The Union Methodist services on Sunday will be held at the First M. E. church.

The Alumni.
The members of the Alumni Association are requested to meet at the High School building this (Saturday) evening to make arrangements to attend the funeral of Miss Gussie Hill. The members of the class of '78 are especially invited. CHAS. A. EWING, Pres.

A New Use for Cork.
The wonderful success of the American make of "Linox" door cloth is fully deserved. It is a beautiful covering, unexcelled for elegance in designs and colorings. Especially suitable for all classes of dwellings, dining rooms, halls, hospitals and churches. Interior foreign imitations, by various names, are on the market, but the superiority of the American make is beyond controversy. The genuine cloth has the Walton Trade Mark and word "LINOX" on the back of every square yard. All carpet dealers keep it.

Temperance Rally To-Night.
The temperance people of Decatur will be addressed at 8 o'clock to-night by Rev. W. H. Mangrove, of Stapp's Chapel, and Rev. Pinkerton, of the Christian Church. A full attendance is requested.

D. T. Temple, the new general secretary for the Decatur Y. M. C. A., has arrived in the city, and has assumed the responsibilities of his position.

Charles L. Smith, son of Judge Smith, has retired from the position of secretary of the Decatur Steam Tile Works. Peter H. Brueck is performing the duties of secretary for the present.

A. H. Mills, of the law firm of Mills Bros., yesterday received six young foxes from his friend, M. C. McGaughey, of Mt. Zion township. The foxes are quite plentiful in the country districts at this time of the year, but they are something of curiosities to city folks. Andy was seen trudging along home last evening carrying two of the pets in a box. What he did with the other four specimens was not learned.

"Humpty Dumpty" Tuesday Night.
The new version of the old story, the pantomime of "Humpty Dumpty, or the Post Boy of Paris," will be given at the Opera House on Tuesday next by the Grimaldi-Adams-Forepang combination. Geo. H. (Grimaldi) Adams appears as Humpty Dumpty, the post boy; his brother, James R. Adams, is a pleasing Pantaloone; Miss Julia Fenton is a very pretty Columbine, and William Eunice is the active and happy Harlequin. Incidental to the second act there is a pleasing olio, including: Ladder pyramids, the three Alps; Seneca, trained and performed by Mr. Adams; sports of Ancient Egypt, "Nelson"; the Spanish Treachery, Barmiz Family; King of Siles, Geo. H. Adams; acrobatic marvels, Leslie Brothers; the clown's un-dread of elephants, introducing the trick elephant Bolivar, impersonated by Leon Whetstone. The Barmiz Family gives a very pleasing and artistic musical performance upon guitars and mandolins. The rest of the olio is good. Admission, 35, 50 and 75 cents.

THE WINNING TICKET.

Enthusiastic and Harmonious Republican Convention at the Court House.

A Splendid Ticket Placed in the Field

Pursuant to call, the 69 delegates to the Republican convention met at the court house last evening for the purpose of nominating candidates for officers of Decatur township. There were many voters in attendance who watched the proceedings with interest, among them Hon. Jason Rogers, who arrived in the city last evening from Springfield. The usual enthusiasm was manifested, and the business of the convention was disposed of in a manner agreeable to all the delegates.

The convention was called to order at 7:45 o'clock by Hon. A. T. Hill, and on motion Joseph R. Mosser was elected chairman and Chas. S. Carsons, secretary.

The official call was read, as was also the list of delegates as printed in the REPUBLICAN. The few vacancies in delegations were filled by alternates, and the names of delegates, as read finally by the secretary, were on motion received as members of the convention.

On motion the temporary organization was made permanent.

For Supervisor, Alexander T. Hill was declared the nominee by acclamation.

For Assistant Supervisors, James Freeman, Joseph Michl and Benjamin O. McReynolds were nominated by acclamation.

For Town Clerk, Benedict McGorray and John R. Williams were placed in nomination.

K. Harwood and Geo. S. Simpson were appointed tellers by the chairman, and the ballot resulted:

McGorray, 39
Williams, 1
Scattering, 1

Mr. McGorray was declared the nominee. For Assessor, Fred J. Smith was nominated by acclamation.

For Collector, John A. Barnes, Festus McClure and James S. Carter were nominated. The first ballot resulted:

Barnes, 34
McClure, 3
Carter, 31

Necessary to a choice, 35. There being no choice, the second ballot resulted:

Barnes, 32
Carter, 36

Mr. Carter was declared the nominee of the convention.

For Commissioner of Highways, David A. Mattif was declared the nominee by acclamation.

For Overseer of Highways in the first district, Wm. T. Dillehunt was nominated by acclamation.

It is only in New Jersey that the papers speak of a "widow woman." All other States grant the sex without dispute. —Detroit Free Press.

The men of Tarshish could not have made much out of the voyage in which Jonah accompanied them; for they were obliged to throw the prophet overboard.

—Class in Geography.—Teacher: "Name the great bays." Small boy: "Bay of Fundy, Bay of Biscay, Arabi Bay." Teacher: "Oh! Pa-shaw." —N. Y. Post.

—Specially advertised this morning for a "man to drive milk." The advertiser must have meant to drive a wall. But perhaps there is little difference. —Pittsburgh Telegraph.

—If a woman desires to become conspicuous at the seaside let her appear in the same dress twice. After this she will be well enough known to justify a publisher in bringing out her poems at his own risk. —Puck.

—Queer epitaphs are numerous, but one of the queerest is this, taken from a stone at Childwell, England: "Here lies me and my three daughters, brought here by sailing salt-water; they were all drowned in the same sea. We wouldn't have been in these here waters."

—Mr. John H. Goodwin, who was assisting in clearing the house, was severely injured by the falling overboard of a boat. He is now in the hospital, and his condition is serious. In his haste to escape from the house he fell over a stove, and it seemed almost certain that he would be burned to death. As it was he barely escaped.

—Derry.—If suppose when women get their rights," said the young man in the flat hat, "you girls will be making love to the fellows. It must be awfully nice to be made love to, you know." —"Yes," replied Angelina, "one way to get to those one's lovers." The next moment the young man in the flat hat was standing alone, feeling flatter than his flat hat.

—A young farmer who had been reading a book which stated that "woman is the Sunday of man," thought he would compliment and please his wife by shouting to her one morning, "Daisy, you are my Sunday!" Daisy glared at him as though she imagined he was defying her, and then quietly said, "Dan, I may be your Sunday, but I'm not going to give you any rest until you buy me a bonnet that's fit to wear to church. Dan now keeps his wife in a Sunday dress, but he is compelled to get the headgear.—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

—"No, sir," said the shopkeeper, "I don't think you will do. We want a man who understands the business of photography, and you have spelled 'situation' in seven different ways, at least, in your application." —"Well, what's that?" said the man of genius.
